SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Our last work day was quieter than the rest of the week, and was a welcome relief to swing shift officers. This allowed them to complete any reports that they were not able to during the rest of the week. During this shift officers contacted a subject who was acting strangely. Upon contact with him he was found to be under the influence. Due to his actions, he was deemed unable to care for his safety and was arrested for public intoxication. Officers also contacted another subject who had a warrant. Due to the fact that he had failed to go to court, he was booked into jail.
